

Jim Godin Wins Back-to-Back Trials!

JIM GODIN SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDS MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR TRAUMATIC BRAIN INJURY CLAIM

Jim Godin successfully defended a property owner in Chester County from Plaintiff's claims that she sustained a traumatic brain injury after a slip and fall. Plaintiff alleged due to Defendant's negligence she was caused to slip and fall striking her head resulting in a traumatic brain injury. She made claims for pain and suffering, past and future medical expenses as well as past and future wage loss. Additionally, a loss of consortium claim was made by Plaintiff's husband. Plaintiff's pre-trial demand was $9 million. After a 3-week trial that involved testimony from over 20 witnesses, the jury found no liability and awarded no damages against Mr. Godin's client.

JIM GODIN SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDS MULTIPLE PLAINTIFF AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT CLAIM IN DELAWARE COUNTY

Jim Godin also successfully defended claims of two Plaintiffs following an automobile accident. In a case of stipulated liability, Plaintiffs alleged neck and back injuries including herniated discs and nerve injuries. Treatment consisted of physical therapy as well as multiple epidural steroid injections. After a brief deliberation, the Jury did not find the Defendant's negligence to be a cause of plaintiffs' claimed injuries – awarding no damages to the plaintiffs.
