- 1. What Agent may do. For loads Carrier has approved, Agent may talk with brokers, shippers and receivers; negotiate and accept rates; sign rate confirmations and broker setup forms in Carrier's name; request and receive load documents such as rate confirmations, BOLs and PODs; submit invoices and paperwork; and track loads and handle check calls.
- 2. What Agent may not do. Agent may not accept any load without Carrier's approval. Agent may not receive, endorse or deposit payments for Carrier. Agent may not change Carrier's bank, factoring, insurance, FMCSA or UCR accounts, borrow money for Carrier, or sell or lease Carrier's equipment.
- 3. How long it lasts. This power starts when Carrier signs. It ends when Carrier cancels it in writing (email counts) or when the Dispatch Service Agreement ends, whichever comes first. Loads Carrier already approved may be finished.
- 4. Carrier stays responsible. Carrier remains responsible for its operations, drivers, equipment and freight. Brokers and shippers may rely on a copy or electronic copy of this document.
