University of Western Sydney, graduated 1986. Training included acting, voice, movement, film and television, stagecraft, writing, direction, production, design, publicity and live performance. Andrea majored in singing.

LIVE PERFORMANCE

Andrea has worked extensively as a singer, cabaret performer and live entertainer across Australia. Her vocal work spans jazz to rock, including blues, soul, ballads, big show numbers, classic rock, original material, covers and self-devised work. She has released three CDs and has worked with many prominent Australian musicians as a lead singer in show bands, resort residencies, cabaret venues and live productions.

COMEDY AND SELF-DEvised WORK

Andrea creates and performs original musical comedy, combining songs, character work, storytelling, satire and audience connection. Her work sits comfortably in theatrical comedy, musical storytelling and live character-based performance.

VOICE OVER

Voice over work includes on-hold messages, audiobooks, advertising, radio, video narration, podcasting and e-learning. Her voice suits warm narration, character reads, mature authority, comedy, corporate delivery and conversational scripts.

Current work: Crumpet to Crackers

A one-woman comedy, music and storytelling show performed with a live band and special guests. The work brings together naturalistic storytelling, acting, comedy, singing, writing, character work, voice and live entertainment.
