Additional Guidance for Day Student Cadets

- Day students can arrive and register on check-in day in the allotted times communicated by the Admissions department.
- Day students are required to be on campus by 0630 during the regular school day. They are to be in proper uniform and present for morning accountability formation.
- Day students who drive to school are required to park their vehicles in the First Presbyterian parking lot located on 11th street across from Hobby-Hudgins Hall.
- Day students are required to be in the appropriate Fishburne Dyke and sign-in at the Operations Office prior to entering the barracks area. Any day student who does not sign-in may be considered absent.
- All day students will turn in cell phones, vehicle keys and any cash at the Operations Office before entering the barracks area. Day students found with these items during the academic hours will have those items confiscated and may be subject to punitive actions.
- If a Day Student is placed on Mandatory Afternoon Study Hall (MASH) by the Dean of Academics, they will be required to stay through this period (until 1700)
- If a student is on an athletic period, they will not depart FMS until after practice (1855) Day students will not be dismissed from campus unless approved by the Commandant or Dean of Academics.
- Day students will be responsible for knowing what the dyke will be used for each corresponding day of the week. Information pertaining to the dyke of the day is located on the Weekly Bulletin published by Student Services.
- To maintain uniformity across the Corps of Cadets, Day students who are issued a room in the barracks are responsible for making sure the room is clean and setup properly for daily inspections.
- Day students maintaining a room in the barracks will be required to be on campus for any weekend inspections.
- Day students are required to be present for all mandatory weekend activities unless otherwise authorized by the Commandant or Dean of Academics.
