

Shreeram

The Mysterious gift

On the Christmas morning

Max woke up in excitement.

He brushed his teeth,

got dressed up and went down stairs his dad was sitting on the couch and playing xbox, Mom in the kitchen. Mom smiled and asked Max to play with the dog in the backyard.

Mom and dad were keeping a secret. They wanted to surprise Max and make him believe that Santa was real. They decided to leave a special gift on the front doorstep. Inside the box was something Max loved "a RC car."

Dad ordered the RC car and waited for it to arrive.

After 40 mins, the door bell rang. Dad quickly went to the door before

Max could see. He took the package, placed it Carefully on the door step, and hid nearby so he could ring the bell again.

Inside the house

Mom called "Max," Max

shouted back "What Mom?"

but she did not answer.

Suddenly the door bell rang loudly. Max walked to the door and opened it. His eyes widened when he saw a red box with no name on it. He felt

Surprised and he wondered who could have left it there.

Max carried the gift to his room and waited until evening.

Later that night, Mom and dad said "gift time!" Max gave presents to his parent and even a small toy to his dog.

Then Max went up stairs and opened the mysterious box. When he saw the RC car his face lit up with joy. He said "Santa is real."