

HARNESS Facilitator Certification – Pathway at a Glance

MATCH Your Protection: Fearless, Aware, & Protected | © 2026 Christopher Zacharie | Licensed educational content

Becoming a Certified FAP Facilitator prepares you to deliver sex-positive, harm-reduction workshops that empower participants to build personalized saFER sex plans. Five clear steps – move at your own pace.

STEP 1	Complete the Facilitator Training Attend the full 4–6 hour FAP Facilitator Training Module (in-person or virtual). Complete the Facilitator Training Workbook before facilitating independently.
STEP 2	Review All Educators Hub Materials Fully read: the Comprehensive Facilitator's Guide, Participant Workbook, Handouts Pack, MATCH Framework and Expanded, Curriculum Overview.
STEP 3	Co-Facilitate One Full Workshop Deliver at least one complete FAP workshop alongside a Certified FAP Facilitator. You may take the lead on any you modules feel confident delivering.
STEP 4	Receive Your Feedback Evaluation Your supervising facilitator completes the Feedback Evaluation Form. Review it together and discuss strengths and areas for continued growth.
STEP 5	Submit &amp; Receive Your Credential Email your completed Feedback Evaluation Form + self-reflection to info@theharnessproject.org. Receive your 5 credential within business days.
ONGOING	Stay Current &amp; Renew Review updated materials annually. Participate in the facilitator community. Certification renews every two years via a brief annual acknowledgment form.

HOW TO SUBMIT
 Email your Feedback Evaluation + self-reflection to:
info@theharnessproject.org

WHAT YOU RECEIVE
 Certified FAP Facilitator credential
 Optional: listed in the facilitator directory

ALL MATERIALS AT
www.theharnessproject.org/educators-hub
 Licensed educational content

